Privacy Policy

June 2014

Port District Football Club Inc. is committed to protecting your privacy and deliver practical and transparent policies and procedures compliant with the provisions of the Australian Privacy Principals of March 2014. Any personal information you provide to us will be only used for registration purposes for appropriate leagues and to provide contact information regarding the club. Any information collected from you will only be used for that specific purpose.

We will collect player information that enables us to fulfil registration requirements. We will collect patron information and past player information to provide information regarding the club. We maintain the name, postal and email address and telephone number. Once registered, you may receive periodic newsletters and/or notices that will keep you up-to-date with club events and information. You may choose to opt out of this service at any time. Your personal information will be kept confidential and secure. All of your information is kept in a location that is protected by secure services. If you wish to access the information we have on you at any time please contact our Secretary and/or the Registrar for each sub-committee.

We wish to keep your personal information accurate at all times. To help us with this we ask that you inform us of any changes to your information by fax, phone or email.

Any personal information that you provide us is private and we will not release such information to individuals or other companies unless we are required to by law.

If you require any information or have any queries regarding the Australian Privacy Principals March 2014 please contact our Secretary Lisa Greig 0407 979 902.
